

Derek Dye

Derek Dye is a graduate of Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey Clown College and the former mascot for the New York Mets and the Pittsburgh Pirates. His inspirational show features stories and insights from the big top to the big leagues. Juggling, balancing, magic, stilt walking and unicycling are some of the art forms that Derek uses to teach students about the situations and crossroads that determine character. From the history of comedy to the situations that students face today, this exciting, fast-paced show will motivate students and give them the courage to be themselves.

The Courage to be Me features topics such as:

- The Power of Imagination •Achieving Goals •Believing in Yourself
- Avoiding Peer Pressure •The Art of Comedy •Character Building

One of the most entertaining and educational shows I have seen in schools in a long time. Derek Dye will wow your kids and teachers!
