

Don Miller

Comedy & Magic

You never know exactly what's going to happen when Don Miller takes to the stage. He begins by explaining that he does comedy and magic and asks if everyone knows the difference. "You see in my act, if it's not funny that's the magic part," he says with a grin.

Because of his improvisation theater background and all the audience participation in his show, every show is virtually customized to meet each group's needs. In his 25 years as a professional entertainer he'll tell you that, "I have entertained in forty-six states and eight different countries." And with a chuckle and a wink he'll tell you that, "They will allow me back in 6 of them."

Don's shows are perfect for after dinner entertainment, company sales meetings, retirement dinners or even your company picnic. He's PG rated, there's no bad language or crude humor, and his act is always good-natured and not mean in any way.

He also offers a mentalist show that is still funny but absolutely amazing! He starts off the show with relating that almost everyone has had an experience where something happens that cannot be explained by normal science. He seriously asks, "Do you believe in ESP?... IBM, IRS, CBS, HBO...any of these things?" His "mentalism skills" are absolutely amazing but still very, very funny.

Don Miller does everything from 45 minute club type shows to full evening stage shows. Because he is also a comedy writer, he can write and create a show that highlights themes, honors the top performers in your company or he can even roast a designated person of the night.

It's simple. He's fun. He's funny. Don Miller entertains!
