STARTERS

Prior to the main course, during cocktails, strolling, one-on-one magic can set the mood for fun. Audience members like this personal approach to comedy and magic, it gives them a taste of what's to come.

MAIN COURSES

THE FLOATING LADY

She's so light she floats...this classic illusion never fails to amaze.

THE CURIOSITY BOX

First lock up the box and lock up the curious lady who will do almost anything to get inside. Audience members come join in the fun that follows. Sometimes you never know who or what will end up in the curiosity box.

PRIME CUT (SAWING A LADY IN HALF)

Two halves are better than one, and in the case of this masterpiece illusion, it's a necessity. Updated for the 90's, this illusion can even use an audience member in the starring role.

HOUSE WHINE?
How did he do that?

ZIG ZAG

In this illusion we divide and conjour. We split the assistant apart in full view of the audience—only to be restored in the blink of an eye!

CHEF'S CHOICE

Choose a member of your group and together we'll work to make them appear out of nowhere. We cook up the best magical method for your event.

BAG IT UP TO GO!

The magician gets all tied up with no place to go. The comedy breaks out as he is placed in the Bag-O-Death. Escape seems impossible.

SIDE DISHES

14 CARROT MIRACLE

A borrowed ring disappears and the magician is at a loss to find it.

The audience volunteer is led through a funny chain of events until the ring reappears in a most unusual place.

TAKE A SEAT, PLEASE!

Every magician has a signed card trick. We are no exception! But ours is better. An audience member selects and signs a card. Then they replace it in the deck and sit down to wait for some magic. It doesn't happen quite as everyone thinks it should, but the magician gets to the bottom of the mystery—discovering the signed card under the chair of the volunteer.

WATCHES AND FIRE AND BLADES, OH MY!

A handcuff escape has to be done in time to save the spectator's watch from plunging into a food processor. It could be watch soufflé time.
