

When Paul starts to play a song, his voice and guitar intertwine and create a magical experience. His fingers seem to dance along the strings. It's obvious, his music is a comfortable old friend that he loves to introduce to everyone. He started performing at 8 years old and hasn't slowed down yet. People in 15 states and 5 countries have enjoyed his performances.

PAUL ODENWELDER

Guitarist / Singer / Songwriter

He has appeared on The Grand Ole Opry and has opened for many acts you may recognize:

Willie Nelson	Merle Haggard	George Jones
Loretta Lynn	Aaron Tippin	The Oakridge Boys
Ronnie Milsap	Charlie Daniels Band	Lori Morgan
Ricky Scaggs	Glen Campbell	Yankee Gray
Tracy Byrd	Trace Adkins	Ricky Van Shelton

He studied at Boston's Berklee College of Music, majoring in Performance, and has played everything from jazz to rock. He is a published songwriter. He continues to write new music for a variety of audiences.

Paul writes contemporary worship music for a number of churches and is very active working with teens.

He operates two music education studios and for 22 years has taught Guitar, Bass, Composition and Production. He knows and loves music.

Paul also is a licensed Kindermusik™ instructor. The program brings the excitement of music and movement to parents and toddlers.

By combining all his experience he now offers a new curriculum for preschoolers called FUNTIME MUSIC. The various programs are simply so much fun the children don't even realize that they are learning.
